HOW TO GET TO HAMPTON COURT PALACE

Hampton Court Palace is located next to the River Thames to the south west of London. It is within the M25 and about 6 miles from the start of the M3 and about 8 miles from the start of the M4. Look out for the brown attraction signs that direct you to Hampton Court Palace.

BY CAR

The palace is located on the A308 and is well signposted from all the major local roads. From the M25 take either exit 10 on to the A307 or exit 12 on to the A308. The palace is also accessible via the A3 and then the A309.

BY TRAIN

South West Trains run services direct from London Waterloo to Hampton Court. The journey takes 35 minutes and the palace is a 200m walk across the bridge from the station. The train service passes through Wimbledon station, where the London Underground District Line begins. Hampton Court is in Travel Zone 6.

BY RIVERBOAT

Riverboats run in the summer from Westminster, Richmond upon Thames and Kingston upon Thames. The journey from Westminster can take up to 4 hours, depending on the tides.

TAXIS

Visitors arriving by taxi may drop off at the gates. There is a mini-cab firm at Hampton Court Station for those wishing to go home by taxi or are heading to Heathrow or Gatwick Airports.

FROM LONDON AIRPORTS

Heathrow Airport, take the 111 bus.

Gatwick Airport, take a train from the airport station to Clapham Junction and change to the Hampton Court train.

City Airport, take the Docklands Light Railway to Caning Town and then the Jubilee Line to Waterloo. Catch the Hampton Court train from there.
